In 2004, Oz-Pet pioneered the technique to convert wood waste (sawdust) from natural plantation timbers into wood pellets for premium pet litter and bedding. Oz-Pet is the ultimate microbial litter; stopping urine smell by eliminating rather than masking unpleasant odours. Our business is a leader of quality Australian wood litter and cat trays, others just follow!

The Pet Industry Association is the only industry association in Australia created to represent all businesses in the pet industry. Formed in 1979 as the PIJAC, we have evolved into a peak organisation which aims to create an environment of best practice principles and ongoing learning for improved technology and systems in the pet industry. The Pet Industry Association is run by members for its members and offers a voice for all who join by liaising with governments, animal welfare agencies, as well as pet and animal groups nationally and internationally. We are represented on government steering committees, consultation and advisory groups on pet ownership and industry issues around Australia.
